Matrix Repair Concentrate

Biomimetic peptides
clinically proven benefits:

The Biomimetic Peptide treatment is one of the most effective latest aesthetic medicine techniques used to regenerate and rejuvenate skin by infiltrating one of the natural intelligent molecules that imitate those of our own skin, through the mesotherapy (a non-surgical cosmetic medicine treatment), to fight against damage caused by aging and over exposure to the sun.

- improvement of the epidermis with an increase in thickness and restoration of the dermal papillary pattern.
- By revealing new surface cells and speeding up cell renewal, skin texture is refined by a reduction in wrinkles, improvement in skin hydration.

GP4G plankton extract
clinically proven benefits:

Epidermal and dermal regeneration

2. GP4G boosts epidermal synthesis: +68% keratin expression

4. GP4G boosts dermal synthesis: +54% collagen, +27% fibronectin

- GP4G protects skin from the environmental shocks of infrared and UV radiation, as well as extreme heat and cold may be the most efficient way to defend against the look of premature skin aging.
